

English Teacher with Studies of Religion | Temporary Full-Time Role starting 2027

New graduates are welcome to apply

We are looking for an enthusiastic English Teacher with Studies of Religion to join our high performing, collegial team. In this temporary full-time role, you will help shape the educational journeys of our students, delivering engaging and impactful English and Religion lessons that inspire a love of learning.

About the role:

- Plan and deliver high-quality and engaging English and Studies of Religion lessons.
- Develop innovative and engaging teaching resources and assessments to support student learning and achievement.
- Provide individualised feedback and support to students, helping them to develop their critical thinking, communication and analytical skills and ensuring they meet academic standards.
- Collaborate with colleagues to contribute to the ongoing development and implementation of the curriculum.
- Maintain accurate student records and comply with all school policies and procedures.
- Provide pastoral care and support to students, fostering their personal and spiritual growth.
- Participate in school events and activities that promote the college's Catholic ethos.

About you:

- Relevant teaching qualifications and NESA accreditation.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents and colleagues.
- High standard of competency, proficiency and innovation as a classroom teacher
- A collaborative and solution oriented mindset, with the ability to work effectively as part of a team.
- Current NSW Working With Children Check

What we offer:

- Competitive salary and benefits package, including access to gyms across Sydney at a discounted price.
- Opportunities for professional development and career advancement.
- Supportive and collegial work environment that values work-life balance.
- No Saturday sport commitment.
- On-site Parking and newly renovated offices.
